From Lars Howlett: One common oversight is to welcome all the familiar faces and friends who you see, but forgetting to ask if this is anyone's first time joining the event or group.

Additional Note From Lauren: In the opening consider including a Land Acknowledgement remembering whose ancestral indigenous land you are gathering.

From Ellen Meuch (WLD Coordinator): You might also want to remind your community that people are walking all around the world at one to create a wave of peace. "Walk as one at 1:00"

We are all on the same path, maybe in different places, or seemingly headed in different directions, as we share this journey to the center together.

From Lauren Artress, Founder of Veriditas to Everyone:
